House Bill No. 962***

By adding the following new subdivision to subdivision (3):

(D) The manager, owner, or franchise owner if applicable, of a restaurant that is not posted pursuant to § 39-17-1359, shall be jointly and severally liable in a civil cause of action for any property damage, bodily injury or death to a patron or employee of such restaurant that proximately results from an incident involving a handgun, the owner of which is authorized to carry pursuant to § 39-17-1351, if the handgun permit holder responsible for the firearm causing the loss was carrying the firearm in the restaurant and:

(i) It was between the hours of eleven o'clock p.m. (11:00 p.m.) and five o'clock a.m.(5:00 a.m.);

(ii) The permit holder was under the influence of alcohol or any controlled substance in violation of § 39-17-1321; or

(iii) The permit holder was consuming beer, wine or any alcoholic beverage while within the restaurant,
